

The Hughey Family

Descendants of Andrew Hughey

About 1820 Andrew Hughey and his two sons, John and George came into Perry Co., Alabama. I found an Andrew Hughey in Rowan Co., North Carolina's tax list for the years 1759-1778. This is also the area I found my Hughes family. John and George Hughey were in their late teens, or early twenties when they came to Perry Co., Al.

Note:

Rebecca Lambert found information in Franklin Co., N. C. regarding property-287 1/2 acres bought by James Hughey of Tyron County from a John Withrow in 1796.

The property taxes were listed under the name of Andrew Hughey and wife Nancy until 1819. He is listed several times.

John Earl went out with a 35 man patrol which was attacked by over 200 Japanese Soldiers. Only 2 survived. All along they had been in an Intelligence and Recon Platoon, which means going for usually several days behind enemy lines, and this was the first patrol they missed going out together. They were always very close, and William Erby , who died in 2001, never fully recovered. This was shared to me by their brother, Robert Creel.
